

ISABRASIVI®
MADE IN CARRARA - ITALY

OUR COMPANY

Tradition and experience, matured over 70 years, have lead to ISABRASIVI® excellent performance in the highly specialized field of abrasives so much so that its reputation and prestige are now worldwide. A well merited success, due to the Company's persistent search for quality and equally constant reliability in this complex market. ISABRASIVI® has continued to grow and keep in step with the times, adapting advanced technology and a highly skilled workforce to become more competitive, to improve its abrasives for processing marble and to increase its production to abrasives for granite stoneware and other synthetic materials with complex problems concerning their processing. ISABRASIVI® works, covering 7.000 square metres, consist of
